Good response for Minchina Nondani; People wait for officials at many booths

Voter enrolment process underway at one of the polling booths in city this morning as part of the special drive.

Mysuru, Apr. 8 (MTY&BCT)- The 'Minchina Nondani' (special voter enrolment drive) to enrol new voters for the forthcoming Assembly elections to be held on May 12 began in city this morning. The special drive has been initiated across the State by the Chief Electoral Officer, Karnataka. The drive will conclude at 5 pm today and the voters will have time till Apr. 14 to enrol their names.

Though the drive across the city began at 10 am, officials who were in-charge of enrolling voters, had not come to some booths even at 11 am. This made people impatient and they complained to media and election authorities against errant officials.

Booths where officials were not present at 10 am included Ursu Boarding School at Nazarbad, two booths on Ramanuja Road and a couple of booths at Ashokapuram. The officials, however, arrived after 11 am and hurriedly began the process of voter enrolment.

New voters who have turned 18 and above as on 1.1.2018 had to carry their birth certificate and any one of the documents — Aadhaar card, passport, ration card, electricity bill, house rent agreement, bank pass book or driving licence — to prove their place of residence. They had to carry two passport size photographs to be handed over to officials. NRIs had to carry a separate set of documents and fill special forms.

B.Y. Vijayendra holds closed-door meeting with L. Revanasiddaiah

Extends invitation to former IPS Officer to join BJP, say sources

Mysuru, Apr. 8 (MTY&BCT)- Even as political silence or call it neutrality is maintained by retired Director General of Police (DGP) and senior Lingayat leader from Congress L. Revanasiddaiah, his closed-door one-on-one meeting with Varuna Constituency likely BJP candidate B.Y. Vijayendra in Mysuru this morning has fuelled intense speculations.

Sources said that Vijayendra extended an open invitation to the former Police Officer, who played a key role in Chief Minister Siddharamaiah's victory from Varuna Assembly segment in 2013, to join the BJP. Both Revanasiddaiah and Vijayendra have, however, denied it and termed the meeting as a courtesy call.

Vijayendra, who arrived in Mysuru last night, drove along with his supporters to Revanasiddaiah's house near the Mysore Airport and met the senior leader, who has been conspicuous by his silence.

Vijayendra reached at around 9 am and sought the blessings of Revanasiddaiah before being closeted in a meeting with Revanasiddaiah for about 25 minutes.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

What role do values play today, ask many who are faced with corruption all around. Is it really possible to do business without bribery in this country? Can a politician be honest, and still manage his election spending? But there are those who say that nevertheless, we cannot give up on values. Both perspectives seem to hold some water. So should we have values or discard them as old fashioned? Perhaps the confusion can be removed by understanding 'values'. Values are usually understood to be some behaviour patterns – telling the truth, being punctual and clean, not indulging in bribery and corruption, and vegetarianism, for example.

To have wrong values is to put the accent on the wrong syllable, to consider non-essentials as essential. At the physical level: to consider looks more important than health; to consider money more important than work. At the mental level: to consider being loved more important than being loving. At the intellectual level: to consider gathering of information more important than wisdom and clarity. At the moral level: to consider what I get to be more important than what I become. At the spiritual level: to consider the robes, rituals, and paraphernalia as more important than the goal of enlightenment. — Janki Santoke in The Times of India.

Story of deserted luxury village

Guangdong province: Five years ago, Chen Sheng, the Founder and Chairman of drinks company Tiandi No.1 Beverage Inc, committed 200 million yuan, to the construction of 258 luxury villas on a plot of land offered by authorities in the village of Guanhu, China's Guangdong province. It's not the prices of the homes keeping people away, as they were offered to the residents of Guanhu as gifts, but greed. The small village numbered 190 households, but Chen decided to build an extra 68 villas, to make sure that anyone who moved to the village before construction of the new homes was completed would also have a new villa. That turned out to be a big mistake. As soon as the plan to build the luxury village was announced, people in Guanhu started fighting over who should get one or multiple villas. In the meantime, the deserted luxury village has become the target of vandalism. Earlier this month, at least 10 windows were smashed with stones, and the whole place is already in need of repairs.

Caterpillars make scary noises !

Ottawa: The vast majority of caterpillars are silent creatures. However, the Nessus sphinx hawkmoth caterpillar is able to produce clicking noises that sounds a lot like static, as a self-defence mechanism, and scientists believe they discovered how. The Nessus sphinx hawkmoth caterpillar when threatened, it produces a strange sound that resembles a combination of cracking and spitting, even though it has no lungs. The brownish-red caterpillars' sound-producing capabilities have baffled scientists for years, but recently, a team of researchers at Carleton University, in Ottawa, Canada set out to solve this mystery. To do this, they trapped wild female moths and raised their eggs in a laboratory. Once the caterpillars were fully grown, researchers set powerful microphones and started simulating predatory attacks, so they could produce self-defence sounds. Microphones revealed that caterpillars didn't produce the sound by rubbing their mandibles together, and that it came from inside their bodies.

More on traffic concerns

Sir,

Apropos the letter by Shivaram Nayak (SOM dated Apr. 2), who has boldly and bluntly called the bluff of helmet checking drive by the Traffic Police, I would like to express my sincere appreciation to Nayak for comprehensively analysing many issues thereof with clarity of failures by the enforcing authority in each of those issues.

I would like to add a few more issues. Many of them have been discussed and debated earlier also, but to no avail.

1. Failure to prevent vehicles without number plates to ply on the roads, as though it is the job of the RTO to control it and the Traffic Police have no role in it. Why not issue notice to RTO or meet them and stop the nuisance?

2. Electric two-wheelers are becoming more and more popular and affordable. This also reflects the policy of Government to bring about pollution-free city roads and cleaner environs. But look at the policy of transport authority. There is no registration needed for electric two- wheelers below certain capacity. Why is it so? Do they not use the roads and do they not cause accidents?

When no such restriction is made public and strictly enforced, what happens to the accident victim involving an electric two-wheeler? Are such vehicles covered by insurance policy? What about theft of such vehicles and how are they traced?

Added to this is the notion that the driver of such vehicles does not need to have a driving license. Even a ten-year-old is seen riding such vehicle in Ramakrishnanagar . Why is the Traffic Police silent on this issue?

3. Traffic Police department is equally blind to the need of a proper system of info and administration of towed away vehicles. A vehicle is towed away leaving the owner in a quandary.

4. What about the rampant 3 and 4 persons riding on two-wheelers? It is saddening to note the decline in road discipline amongst the educated and young college students. Why is the traffic authority not very vigilant on this issue?

This clearly shows that the real concern of the Traffic Police is not wholly aimed at reducing the accidents, educating the youth, enforcing all the traffic related rules strictly and in a wholesome manner, removing the obstacles impeding the smooth flow of traffic. But it is only a symbolic justification of their employment at the expense of the tax-payer.

Hope, the authorities will rise to the current situation and act promptly.

Implement online payment of property tax

Sir,

The Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) has its online property payment system up and working smoothly from April 1, 2018 itself. 5% rebate is also available for online payment.

Can the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) also implement the online system for improving tax collection efficiency and convenience to the public (particularly senior citizens) who are currently made to stand in long queues under hot sun for claiming 5% rebate?

SSLC English examination: Wrong question paper given to repeaters

Mysuru, Apr.8 (US&SBD)- Distribution of wrong question paper in SSLC examination for English subject for the repeaters forced the hapless repeaters to write the exam again at a centre in city. The incident is said to have happened at Sadvidya High School where the repeaters were reportedly given question papers meant for regular students.

On learning the mistake, the repeaters numbering over ten were allegedly called back and asked to take the exam again with the right question paper. Gross negligence of the Chief Supervisor of the Centre is cited as the reason for the blunder.

The exam was held on Mar.28. A few of the repeaters found something odd with the question paper and informed the room invigilator who had reportedly ignored the same.

Officials of Department of Public Instruction have also confirmed the incident. Parents of the affected students complained to SOM about the negligence of the Chief Supervisor of the Centre and has sought action against the offender.

DDPI Mamata confirmed SOM that the blunder of exchanging the question paper had happened only at the said centre and added a report in that context had been sent to the Examination Board.

Vijayendra meets Varuna ticket aspirants, party workers

Asks BJP workers to stay united and put up a fight against ruling Congress

Mysuru, Apr. 8 (SPN&BCT)- Vijayendra, son of BJP Chief Ministerial candidate B.S. Yeddyurappa, will take on Dr. Yathindra, son of Chief Minister Siddharamaiah in Varuna constituency in Mysuru district.

The State BJP Core Committee that met at a luxury resort on the outskirts of Bengaluru on Friday is said to have finalised the name of Vijayendra as the party candidate. Now, only the party high command has to approve his candidature.

Though there were 16 aspirants for the BJP ticket from Varuna, it was a unanimous decision as Vijayendra is being seen as the best choice to put up a strong fight against Dr. Yathindra.

On his part, Vijayendra has begun hectic preparations for the high-profile battle and he has conveyed the message to party workers to put up a united front against the Congress.

He met a section of party workers in Mysuru at a private hotel and before the meeting, Vijayendra told reporters that the party high command had sent out a message to organise the party from the booth-level and ensure the victory of the party candidate.

"On Sunday, (today) I will hold a meeting of local administration representatives including Zilla Panchayat and Taluk Panchayat and will take their opinions in formulating a strategy to defeat the Congress and the process of organising the party from the grassroot level will begin immediately," he said.

The meeting will be held at Rajendra Bhavan on Ramanuja Road. Vijayendra also held a meeting with all the BJP ticket aspirants from Varuna and asked them to ensure that there was no confusion among the voters regarding party candidate and sought their support.

Varuna constituency, which is in the JD(S) and Congress-dominated Mysuru region, has a large Lingayat population.

Parties estimate that there are around 60,000 Lingayat votes, 42,000 SC votes, 24,000 ST votes, 33,000 Kuruba votes, and 13,000 Vokkaliga votes in the constituency.

"We are not banking on caste equations and despite tall claims of development by the Congress Government. In reality, the constituency has remained underdeveloped despite having Chief Minister Siddharamaiah as its representative," he said.

But sources added that he may take up a house in Varuna as it will be easy for him to co-ordinate with the party workers and local leaders.

It is learnt that Yeddyurappa's trusted aide Ka.Pu. Siddalingaswamy, who has the experience of contesting the last Assembly elections and who knows the constituency in and out, has been given the responsibility of house hunting.

H.D. Revanna

B. Manjegowda

Bengaluru, Apr.8 (KMS&DM)- Chief Minister Siddharamaiah's efforts to defeat JD(S) Supremo and former PM H.D. Deve Gowda's clan in Holenarasipur of Hassan district seems to have received a setback, as the resignation of Karnataka State Government Employees Association President B. Manjegowda, who is tipped to be Congress candidate is yet to be accepted.

The legal department is said to have suggested the Government that the acceptance of the resignation is not advisable as Manjegowda is facing several charges of corruption and irregularities.

The Department in its report, has said that there can be no public interest in accepting the resignation of Government staff or officers when they are facing serious charges.

Manjegowda is accused of being involved in mining scam and amassing wealth beyond known sources of income.

With Manjegowda facing charges, the Government had sought the advice of the Legal Department.

Chief Minister Siddharamaiah had recently admitted that the Congress was serious thinking of fielding Manjegowda from Holenarasipur to take on H.D. Revanna of the JD(S) in the Assembly polls.

The wait is over. Time to savour Summer Fruits

Mysuru, Apr. 8 (LNY&BCT)- Absolute indulgence has just made its way into the city straight from Pune and Bengaluru. We're talking here about the arrival of exotic summer fruits like Jamun, Litchi, Mangoes and Fig. It is time to enjoy a glass full of fresh strawberries or other fruits with oodles of fresh cream. Served in a generous quantity, this makes for an ideal and indulgent dessert like no other on a hot day.

For most Mysureans, arrival of summer has always put a grin on their faces with the unsaid, delightful thought of enjoying summer fruits — relishing their juicy part and the sweet feel of after-taste lingering in their mouths for a long time. Be it the humble Jamun that comes from the outskirts of Mysuru or the strawberries that come from Pune or the Fig and the Mangoes that come from Bengaluru and even parts of Mysuru — it is worth the wait for summer and its special fruits.

RED STRAWBERRIES

For Mahadev from Rammanahalli village on the outskirts of Mysuru, summer is the time to make some money to sustain his family. He sells strawberries on the roadside in front of the Crawford Hall. "Summer season begins with the arrival of strawberries from Pune. We get it from the RMC Yard and sell them for small profits. My fellow villagers too are in this business and they are spread across the city including Kalidasa Road, Vishwamanava Double Road, near Saraswathipuram-Kuvempunagar junction, Yadavagiri near Akashavani, near Deputy Commissioner's office and Vivekanandanagar," he says.

"While mangoes, jackfruits, musk melons and watermelons are common in summer, exotic fruits like Jamun, Litchi, Fig and Rose Apples have a special place as they add colour and smooth juicy texture to salads and ice creams. These delicate and tasty fruits are also priced high," he explains.

Mahadev sells a box of strawberries for Rs. 50 and each box contains over 15 to 20 fruits depending on the size. Ask him and he rattles out the many health benefits of strawberries. "These are little health gems that are delicious. They are also packed with heat-reducing nutrients and provide antioxidant benefits," he explains.

Strawberries sold for Rs. 50 a box.

Jamun sold at Rs. 60 - Rs. 70 for 250 gms.

Anjoor (fig) sold for Rs. 160 - Rs. 170 per kg.

Though hailing from Rammanahalli, Mahadev stays in K.G. Koppal as he has to travel all the way to the village after his routine sales. "I manage to sell five to six big boxes of the fruit after dividing and repackaging them in small boxes. The strawberry season will get over in a couple of days and the next fruits to arrive will be Jamun, Mangoes and Litchis," he says.

THE HUMBLE JAMUN

Jamun (Nerale Hannu) fruit or the black plum with scientific name Syzygium Cumini is also known as jambul, jambolan, jamblang or jamun. In Mysuru, the fruit is grown in abundance at Rammanahalli, Hanchya and surrounding villages.

Jamun trees are known for its thick shade and the fruits are small and sweet and bluish in colour. As one eats the fruit, tongues turn blue and Jamun berries leave a fruity-dry feeling in the mouth. Though the small variety of jamun is available in abundance in villages, people have become used to eating the large hybrid variety that has a lot of flesh and bigger seeds when compared to the smaller ones.

Every year, Jamun sellers can be seen all over the city. Some vendors have been coming for many years and some since their childhood. Sellers come from the villages on bicycles with the fruits and sell them directly to the buyers. Enterprising sellers sell the fruits for Rs. 60 to Rs. 70 per quarter kg and make marginal profits.

Jamun fruit is good for a diabetes patient as it has many anti-diabetic features. It helps convert starch into energy and keeps blood sugar levels in check. It is low on glycemic index and reduces diabetes symptoms like frequent urination and thirst. It also increases haemoglobin content and helps in keeping skin healthy.

RIPE FIG, LUSCIOUS LITCHIS

Another exotic fruit that has made its appearance in the city is the Fig with its tiny seeds, rough surface and sweet taste. Though figs were not sold in abundance last year, this year it has made a big entry.

State Govt. staff demand medical treatment free of charges

Mysuru, Apr.8 (NNN) - The Central Service (Medical Attendance) C.S. (MA) Rules 1944 that is applicable to Central Government employees for reimbursement of medical expenditure incurred for in-patient treatment in a hospital is also applicable to the staff officers, pensioners and their families of Employees Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO) and they are entitled to treatment free of charges.

However, the Regional PF Commissioner (RPFC) did not implement the judgement of the Supreme Court, wherein the SC had upheld the applicability of the CS(MA) Rules 1944 relying upon the judgment of the Karnataka High Court dated November 30, 2015.

Some pensioners had approached the Central Administrative Tribunal (CAT) and High Court of Karnataka had upheld the CS(MA) and disallowed amount was reimbursed. But the Regional Provident Commissioner restricted the claims of re-imbursement and disallowed huge amount without due notice to the beneficiaries and kept them in the dark.

The Appellant and President, Karnataka EPF Pensioners Association H.S. Sadashiva has sought information pertaining to the period 1.4.2012 to 31.3.2017, as to who claimed re-imbursement.

In a press release, Sadashiva said that CPIO (Central Provident Information Officer) and RPFC replied and provided names and not the particulars such as name of the hospital, date of admission and date of discharge, amount, claimed amount disallowed and under what provision of law it disallowed.

The Appellant submitted an appeal before the Central Information Commissioner which directed the CPIO to provide complete information within 30 days, Sadashiva said in the release.

Mayor invited to New Hampshire to promote health, yoga tourism

Mayor B. Bhagyavathi (centre) seen with Latha Mangipudi, Local Representative (MLA), USA, MCCI President A.S. Satish, Rtn. R. Krishna, Krishna Mangipudi and others at MCCI premises in city recently.

Mysuru, Apr. 8- Mayor B. Bhagyavathi has been invited to Nashua City in New Hampshire, USA and her counterpart John Donchess is likely to visit Mysuru to promote it as health tourism and yoga destination.

NIMHANS Director Prof. B.N. Gangadhar is also actively involved in this, with the active participation of Mysore Chamber of Commerce and Industry (MCCI).

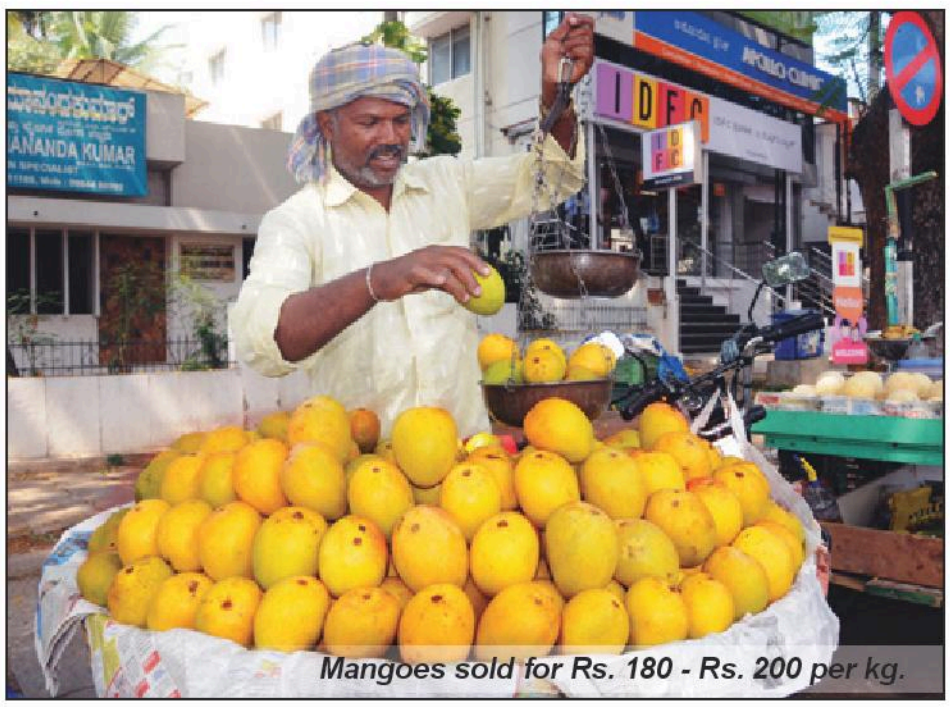
This decision to enhance the relationship between the two cities was taken at an interaction between Latha Mangipudi, Local Representative (MLA), USA, her husband Krishna Mangipudi and the Mayor at the MCCI premises on Devaraj Urs Road, here recently.

Three meetings via video conference have been held with both City Mayors along with the New Hampshire Senator and the Corporators participating in it. MCCI member Rtn. R. Krishna along with Latha Mangipudi is coordinating the Sister-City concept meetings.

A team from Nashua had visited the city in Jan. 2017 and this was followed by a study tour of Mysuru Zoo by Boston Zookeeper Anne Knopp. The zoo-keepers from Mysuru Zoo will reciprocate the visit to Boston Zoo soon.

Entrepreneurs Forum of Mysuru and Nashua has also been formed, according to a press release from MCCI.

Time to savour Summer Fruits



Mangoes sold for Rs. 180 - Rs. 200 per kg.

While most of us are used to eating processed, dried and juicy fig that comes as part of dry fruit assortment, it is a unique experience to taste the fruit in its natural format.

Shankar sells fig (anjoor) in front of Crawford Hall. "Anjoor is a bit expensive and I sell them for Rs. 160 to Rs. 170 per kg. Though many people do not like the taste and texture of fresh Anjoor, die-hard fans of this fruit purchase them and I manage to sell over 20 kgs per day," he said.

Figs are high in fibre and a good source of several essential minerals, including magnesium, manganese, calcium (which promotes bone density), copper and potassium (which helps lower blood pressure), as well as vitamins. Figs are a good source of potassium, a mineral that helps to control BP.

The most loved and the most expensive exotic fruit of summer is the litchi or lychee. It is the member of the soapberry family, Sapindaceae, and is a tropical fruit tree native to the Guangdong and Fujian provinces of China. The fruit is a good source of several vitamins, minerals and healthy antioxidants. Besides being sweet and nutritious, these berries bring cooling effect on the body to beat the summer heat.

Litchi has a very short shelf life though it offers numerous benefits to skin, hair and health. A kilogram of litchi is usually sold in Mysuru for Rs. 380 to Rs. 400. However, you will have to wait for some more time to savour luscious litchis.

MANGOES

Summer is the time when one bites into fleshy, juicy and sweet mangoes with yellow juice dripping from the sides of the mouth and flowing all over the hand.

While more varieties are expected to arrive in city in the coming days, the Badami variety has already arrived. Of course, since it is only the beginning of the mango season, the fruits are expensive. Revanna from Rammanahalli, who sells these mangoes near Crawford Hall, says that he buys the fruit for Rs. 180 per kg in a mango Mandi and sells it for Rs. 200 here.

"Yes it is expensive and while buying too, I am very careful not to buy in bulk as the customers are choosy. Before buying they ask me a lot of questions like if the fruits are ripened naturally or if chemicals are used. However, I manage to sell at least 50 kgs per day," he says.

THOTAPURI MANGOES

Not just ripe mango, raw and semi-ripe Thotapuri mangoes too have arrived in the city and are a hit among college students and youth who cut and eat it with salt and chilli powder. Enterprising vendors near Crawford Hall also carry a pack of salt and chilli powder and serve the cut Thotapuri mangoes to discerning customers.

Para-Military forces arrive in city for poll security

Mysuru, Apr. 8 (MTY&BCT)- A team of central Para-Military forces have arrived in Mysuru along with a team of officers to provide security and monitor the election process.

The team's location and accommodation have, however, been kept confidential for security reasons. Both City Police Commissioner Dr. A. Subrahmanyeswara Rao and Mysuru Superintendent of Police Amit Singh admitted that the Central forces have come on election duty but declined to divulge more details.

Sources told Star of Mysore that many more battalions of the forces will arrive in Mysuru either today evening or tomorrow morning. The forces that have already come to city include Sashastra Seema Bal (SSB), Rapid Action Force (RAF) and Indo-Tibetan Border Police (ITBP).

They will have the responsibility of maintaining order in the Constituencies in Mysuru and Chamundeshwari and Varuna constituencies that are set for high-profile electoral battles.

Normally, Para-Military forces arrive at a place of election three or four days before the voting date. This time, however, considering the sensitiveness of Mysuru district, forces have come a month in advance. Sources said that the forces will keep a hawk's eye on electoral malpractices and will ensure peace during voting and the counting process.

They have been sent to Mysuru by the Election Commission of India and will coordinate with the State election authorities and the local Police, sources added.

Voter Enrolment Drive

In the Krishnaraja Constituency, former Minister and BJP leader S.A. Ramdas visited houses coming under 223 polling booths in the constituency and urged the voters to enrol themselves in the enrolment drive. He also urged them to make sure if their names are in the voters list.

Apart from inclusion of voters, today there was a provision for voters to check if their names were in the voters list, correction of spellings in names and addresses, change in age and place of residence and even deletion of names following the death of the voter. For deletion of names, however, a person had to produce the death certificate of the deceased for his name to be deleted.

The enrolment drive will conclude at 5 pm today and later, the officials will send the list to the district electoral officer who will in turn send the list to the State Election Commission in the prescribed format for the inclusion in the voters list. Once the list is approved, voter slips will be sent to the houses of the respective voters, said officials.

Voter service centres near polling booths

The Election Commission of India has taken several measures to make the poll process smooth and for the convenience of the voters. Among the steps are to set up voter service centres near the booths on behalf of the Commission to make the election process smooth, effective and transparent.

At these service centres, voters can clear their doubts on the election and the voting process. Apart from this, new and upgraded technical tools are being used in election planning for monitoring the election process.

Apps like 'Samadhan', 'Suvidha' and 'Sugam' have been deployed. 'Samadhan' is a public grievance redressal system for receiving complaints (through online, toll free 1950), email, mobile application, fax, post, SMS, online processing and tracking of complaints.

'Suvidha' is a single window system for candidates and political parties to apply for permissions (meetings, rallies, vehicles, temporary election office, loudspeakers, helicopters and helipads etc). The ECI has issued directions to give permissions within 24 hours.

'Sugam' is a vehicle management system with the facility of issuance of requisition letters for vehicles, Capturing of vehicle details with address, mobile number and bank details of owner and driver, transfer of vehicles from one district to another district, etc.

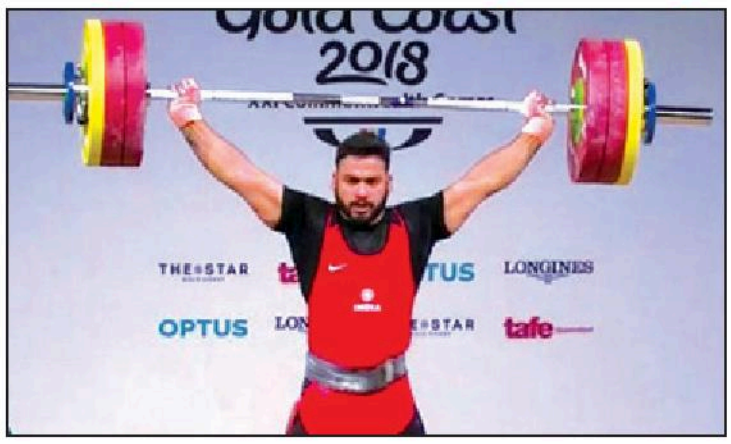
BJP first list likely tonight

Bengaluru, Apr.8 (KMS&DM)- Very much keen on returning to power in Karnataka, the BJP, which has considered the State as a gateway to power in the South, is likely to announce its first list of candidates for the May12 Assembly polls at 8.30 pm today.

Sources said that the BJP Election Committee is to hold another round of meeting with the Party's National President Amit Shah in New Delhi this evening, before releasing the first list of candidates.

The list will have the names for about 80 seats and almost all sitting MLAs and party candidates, who came close to winning in the last Assembly polls, find mention in the list, the sources added.

CWG 2018: Vikas Thakur bags bronze in weightlifting



Gold Coast, Apr. 8 - India's Vikas Thakur today clinched a bronze medal in the Men's 94 Kg weightlifting at the Commonwealth Games 2018 being held at the Gold Coast in Australia.

After a dramatic fight for Gold and Silver, Vikas had to be content with a bronze.

The Weightlifter from Ludhiana lifted a total weight of 351 Kg – 159 Kg in Snatch and 192 Kg in Clean and Jerk, to get the bronze medal.

Vikas was very impressive with his Snatch technique in his attempts. In the Clean and Jerk technique, Vikas managed to get a good lift but failed in the Jerks. He failed in his final attempt of the Clean and Jerk technique of 200 Kg. But it would have not mattered as Papua New Guinea's Steven Kari lifted 216 KG in Clean and Jerk technique to bag the Gold medal while Canada's Boady Santavy failed to lift 206 kg and settled for Silver. Vikas's medal position takes India to a total of 8 medals in weightlifting in the ongoing Commonwealth Games. Vikas Thakur had earlier clinched a Silver medal in the Men's 85 Kg weightlifting category at the Commonwealth Games in Glasgow in 2014.

Intelligence Report on Chamundeshwari constituency fake: CMO

Criminal action must be taken against forgery, says KPCC Media Convener Brijesh Kalappa

Bengaluru, Apr. 8 (BCT)- The Chief Minister's Office (CMO) has clarified that the Intelligence report, that is doing rounds on social media, stating that Chamundeshwari Assembly Constituency is not safe for Chief Minister Siddharamaiah, was a fake report.

Brijesh Kalappa

Yesterday, a report, reportedly signed by Additional Director General of Police (ADGP), was being widely circulated on WhatsApp and other social media platforms that said that the State Intelligence Branch has recommended Chief Minister Siddharamaiah not to contest from Chamundeshwari as it is not a viable option due to the concentration of Vokkaliga population there.

Reacting to the reports, the CMO in a press release said that the Intelligence DIG has been asked to conduct a probe into the fake report. "The Intelligence Department has not given any such report. The report is false and fabricated. The ADGP post in the Intelligence Department is lying vacant. Moreover, the intelligence reports are usually in Kannada, not English," the CMO explained.

'Election Commission to book suo moto case'

Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee (KPCC) Media Convener and party Spokesperson Brijesh Kalappa has requested the Election Commission to book suo moto case against the misuse of official machinery for electoral gains.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, Brijesh Kalappa said, "The BJP 'dirty tricks department' is back and this time with patently criminal activity. They have created an original-looking document purportedly of the State Intelligence, including a signature of the head of Intelligence, A.M. Prasad. They however forgot that he is now DGP and not ADGP."

"The BJP has activated various cells to spread false information and this time, they have committed forgery and have misled the media and the public with the sole intention of winning the elections. In the past, no political party has indulged in such cheap tricks and unfortunately, senior leaders of BJP have shared such false information in social media," he added.

Brijesh Kalappa has requested the Election Commission to book suo moto case against the people behind the forgery and file criminal cases under relevant Sections of the Indian Penal Code (IPC).

Vijayendra meets Revanasiddaiah

It may be recalled here that Revanasiddaiah showed his political skills by garnering maximum votes for Siddharamaiah in villages considered as Lingayat stronghold in the 2013 Assembly elections. The retired IPS Officer is said to be upset with the CM as he completely ignored him soon after assuming office.

Speaking to reporters before his meeting with the former cop, Vijayendra said that he had come to take the blessings of the senior leader. "I will stay here in Varuna and tour extensively mobilising the party support for BJP," he said. He, however, did not disclose about what he would discuss with Revanasiddaiah.

On the other hand, Revanasiddaiah told reporters that he was happy to welcome a youth who has entered politics. "He is young and it is left to him if he wants to contest or work for the party. I will extend good wishes to him. Politics and personal relations are different and Vijayendra has come here out of our personal contacts," he said.

Making his stand clear that he was still in Congress, the former Police Officer said, "I am not far away from active politics but I have stayed away from street politics."

On him being allegedly neglected by CM Siddharamaiah by not giving him any posts though he is a prominent Lingayat leader, he said that he had not joined Congress for any plum posts.

"I have supported parties and candidates in electoral battles and they have won. I have not turned pessimistic now. People, irrespective of political parties, are in touch with me," he revealed.

When asked about his next political move and who would he support, Revanasiddaiah said that it was not possible now to reveal the details and his support for a candidate depends on political situation prevailing at that time.

He however categorically stated that he was not a ticket aspirant either from Varuna or Chamundeshwari. "I am not a ticket aspirant and I have not joined any party seeking positions. However, I am not dejected too. Will make my stand clear in the coming days," he said with a smile.

Now Photo Voter Slip will be delivered at doorstep

Mysuru, Apr. 8 (US)- For this Assembly election in the State, Election Commission will be despatching Photo Voter Slips to voter's residences coming under the jurisdiction of the corresponding polling booths. The Voters Slips will be delivered by the Booth Officer one week before the poll date.

If the voter is not available, the slips will be handed over to the Constituency Returning Officers in a sealed envelope. Henceforth, the voters need not depend on party candidates or other agents for getting the slips which was a practice all these years.

Political parties and agents used to set up pendals near polling booths on the election day to distribute voter slips which used to give room for malpractices.

The new system will be convenient and transparent. The slip will be handed over only to the voter and nobody else.

"When I came to the University of Mysore for my profession, somebody asked me what my caste was and I replied I do not know. Starry start for VIVO IPL-2018

The Indian Premier League-2018 (IPL) got off to a starry start with Bollywood stars enthralling the crowd at Wankhede in Mumbai before the opening match between Chennai Super Kings (CSK) and Mumbai Indians (MI) yesterday evening. Varun Dhawan danced to some of his numbers following which Prabhu Deva, Tamannaah Bhatia, Jacqueline Fernandez and Hrithik Roshan also shook their leg to some peppy songs. Singer Mika Singh lent his voice to a few dance numbers. Hrithik Roshan was particularly great with his moves, leaving the cricket buffs grooving.

Thrilling one wicket win for CSK over MI

Mumbai, Apr. 8- Chennai Super Kings (CSK) snatched victory from the jaws of defeat as they edged defending champions Mumbai Indians (MI) by just one wicket in the first match of the eleventh season of Indian Premier League (IPL), last night.

West Indian all-rounder Dwayne Bravo was the star of the day while Kedar Jadhav became the hero of the last over as CSK got their campaign off to a thrilling start.

Chasing a decent target of 166 to get in 20 overs, Chennai openers Ambati Rayudu and Shane Watson gave the team an ideal start as they started to hit boundaries from the word go. Rayudu was the aggressor of the two right-handers, as he was destructive on the off-side.

Hardik Pandya was introduced in the fourth of the innings and he did the trick by getting rid of Watson for 16 to break the opening partnership. Suresh Raina became Hardik's second scalp of the day as he gave away a simple catch to Krunal at mid-on for 4.

Debutant Mayank Markande was introduced into the attack by Rohit and the decision to do so worked wonders for the Blue Brigade as the wrist-spinner simply tore the CSK line-up. First, he trapped Rayudu plumb in front of the wicket for 22 and then, he got the prized wicket of MS Dhoni for 5.

Reeling at 51/4, Kedar Jadhav and Ravindra Jadeja started the rebuilding job and tried to put on a good partnership for the fifth wicket. However, the 24-run stand was ended by Mustafizur Rahman who scalped his first wicket by getting rid of Jadeja as Chennai lost half their side at this point.

Deepak Chahar, Harbhajan Singh and Mark Wood all followed suit in quick successions as Mumbai looked like finishing the match early. However, Bravo had other ideas as he completely changed the complexion of the match single-handedly.

CSK's Dwayne Bravo hits a boundary.

Bravo first took the attack to McClenaghan and slammed two sixes and one boundary in the 18th over of the innings. Bumrah was the next bowler to be taken apart by Bravo as he hit three massive sixes in the penultimate over and also complete his fifty in stunning style.

However, on the last ball off the over, Bumrah got the wicket of Bravo and Chennai needed 7 runs off the last Mustafizur over. Jadhav — who had to head back into the hut after sustaining a hamstring injury earlier in the innings — returned to bat in the last over.

Jadhav slammed one six and one four on the fourth and the fifth balls respectively in the final over as Chennai completed a thrilling one-wicket win.

Earlier, after put to bat first, Mumbai posted a fighting total of 165/4 in their designated 20 overs, courtesy of a late blitz from the Pandya brothers.

The duo started to hit the CSK bowlers at will. Krunal was the most destructive of the duo as he finished the innings with 41 off just 22 deliveries. Meanwhile, Hardik could muster 22 off 20 deliveries.

The duo put on an unbeaten 52-run partnership to break the take hosts' score past the 150-run mark and their partnership included seven boundaries and two massive sixes as well.

West Indian Dwayne Bravo was adjudged as the Player of the Match.

The Scores: Mumbai Indians 165 for four in 20 overs (Krunal Pandya 41 n.o, Ishan Kishan 40, Suryakumar Yadav 43, Hardik Pandya 22 n.o., Shane Watson two for 29) lost to Chennai Super Kings 169 for nine in 19.5 overs (Dwayne Bravo 68, Kedar Jadhav 24 n.o, Ambati Rayadu 22, Hardik Pandya three for 24, Mayank Markande three for 23).

Day 3: Commonwealth Games 2018

Sathish, Venkat bag gold for India in weight-lifting

Gold Coast, Apr. 8- Undeterred by niggles and lack of proper physiotherapic care, Indian weight-lifters delivered two more gold medals for the country on Saturday, while shuttlers and boxers remained unbeaten to make up for the hockey team's sloppy draw against Pakistan on Day-3 of the 21st Commonwealth Games here.

India now have four gold, a silver and a bronze in the event, leaving them fourth on the overall tally.

Hosts Australia top the charts with a whopping 57 medals — 20 gold, 17 silver and 20 bronze. India's two gold medals came through Sathish Sivalingam (77kg) and Venkat Rahul Ragala (85kg), both of whom were not 100 per cent fit owing to respective thigh and knee injuries but still managed to keep ahead of the competition.

Badminton: The Indians bossed the badminton court as well and remained unbeaten en route confirming a semifinal berth. The team at the receiving end of the top seeds' ferocity was Mauritius, blanked 3-0 by Saina Nehwal and Co. in yet another clinical performance.

Men's Hockey: The men's hockey team was a disappointment in its clash against arch-rival Pakistan. After leading 2-1 for 59 minutes, the Indians let in a penalty corner in the final seven seconds to end up with shared honours against a decidedly weaker opponent.

Table Tennis: Both the men's and women's table tennis teams entered the semifinals. Both the teams were up against Malaysia in their respective ties and came out trumps with identical 3-0 margins.

Boxing: Indian boxer Manoj Kumar entered the quarter-final round, defeating Kassim Mbundwike of Tanzania in the men's 69kilogram category at the 21st Commonwealth Games here on Saturday. Manoj thrashed Mbundwike 5-0 in a unanimous decision.

Basketball: It was a bad day for Indian basketball teams at the 21st Commonwealth Games as both the men and women's teams lost their respective preliminary round matches here on Saturday.

Revanasiddaiah's silence much debated in Varuna

Mysuru, Apr.8 - Former IPS officer and Lingayat leader L. Revanasiddaiah, who played a key role in Chief Minister Siddharamaiah's victory from Varuna Assembly segment in 2013, is conspicuous by his silence even as the countdown for the May12 Assembly poll has begun.

Revanasiddaiah, who showed his political skills by garnering votes in villages considered as Lingayat stronghold in the 2013 Assembly polls, is said to be upset with the CM as he completely ignored him soon after assuming office.

With Revanasiddaiah remaining silent and neutral this time, one Kumar, who is said to be a Personal Assistant of the CM, is learnt to have called Revanasiddaiah saying that the CM was keen to meet him. But Revanasiddaiah is said to have ignored the call.

Amidst the silence of the former IPS officer, the CM is likely to personally meet Revanasiddaiah and seek his support in Varuna, where his (CM) son Dr. Yathindra in contesting this time.

Even as the former top cop's silence has been the talking point in Varuna, Revanasiddaiah was said to be present when AICC President Rahul Gandhi visited Tumakuru Siddaganga Mutt recently. But it is said that Revanasiddaiah's presence in Siddaganga Mutt is not of much significance as the former cop had visited the Mutt on an invitation.

Revanasiddaiah, who had political aspirations, showed interest in joining JD(S) soon after his retirement.

But the former IPS officer, bowing to then CM S.M. Krishna's advice, joined the Congress and even contested the 2004 Assembly polls on a Congress ticket from Chamundeshwari Constituency and lost the poll to Siddharamaiah who was then in the JD(S).

After Siddharamaiah quit the JD(S) and joined the Congress, JD(S) Supremo H.D. Deve Gowda made efforts to rope in Revanasiddaiah to the party fold, but in vain, as the top cop did not show interest in contesting the 2006 by-polls from Chamundeshwari against Siddharamaiah, who was fighting on a Congress ticket.

But after some time, Revanasiddaiah joined the BJP following an invitation from B.S. Yeddyurappa. After his admission to the BJP, the party fielded him against Siddharamaiah from Varuna segment in the 2008 Assembly polls.

Revanasiddaiah gave a tough fight to Siddharamaiah by bagging 53,071 votes.

Later getting upset over the development in BJP, Revanasiddaiah remained neutral for some time when Siddharamaiah invited him to join the Congress ahead of the 2013 Assembly polls.

The former top cop, who joined the Congress, ensured significant Lingayat support for Siddharamaiah in Varuna, which ultimately led to the CM's victory over KJP nominee Ka.Pu. Siddalingaswamy, a local Lingayat leader.

But soon after Siddharamaiah became the CM, Siddharamaiah favoured another retired IPS officer Kempaiah, much to the disappointment of Revanasiddaiah who has chosen to stay neutral so far.

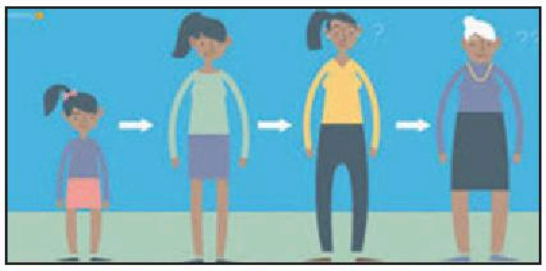
WORD OF THE DAY

Ineluctable



Pronunciation: In-ih-LUK-tuh-bul (Adjective)
Meaning: Not to be avoided, changed, or resisted: inevitable
Origin: Like drama, wrestling was popular in ancient Greece and Rome. "Wrestler," in Latin, is luctator, and "to wrestle" is luctari. Luctari also has extended senses—"to struggle," "to strive," or "to contend." Eluctari joins e- ("ex-") with luctari, forming a verb meaning "to struggle clear of." Ineluctabilis brought in the negative prefix in- to form an adjective describing something that cannot be escaped or avoided; English speakers borrowed ineluctabilis as ineluctable. Another word that has its roots in luctari is reluctant. Reluctari means "to struggle against"—and someone who is reluctant resists or holds back.

THE ODD WORD

Mushy headed

Inadequately thought out, mushy headed ideas or (informal) having vague, unsubstantiated, or unrealistic ideas or opinions:
A mushy headed idealist.

IDIOM OF THE DAY

Grin and bear it

Meaning: If you grin and bear it, you accept a difficult situation and try not to let it upset you.
Origin: Put up good-humoredly with adversity, with good humour, as in It's no fun being sick for the holidays, but you might as well grin and bear it. Also put as grin and abide in the 19th century, this expression became so well known that Sam Walter Foss (1858–1911) made a pun on it in his poem, "The Firm of Grin and Barrett": "Never yet was any panic Scared the firm of Grin and Barrett."
